President's Message

Dear CBA Members:

Happy Spring! I hope this letter finds you and your family safe and healthy.

With Covid vaccinations becoming more readily available our lives will soon return to normal. I'm hearing by Fall but I am keeping my fingers crossed for June. For those who are unwilling to get vaccinated, please reconsider your decision. I've had the Moderna vaccine and experienced very little side effects. The worst case scenario is flu-like symptoms for six-to-twelve hours following the second vaccination--a small price to pay to keep you and everyone around you safe and healthy.

I hope that most of you have also taken advantage of the second PPP loan program. If you haven't done so already, you can still apply. The application deadline has been extended from March 31st. to May 31st. The major qualifier for this latest round of funding is that your business must show one 2020 quarterly loss in revenue, of at least 25%, for a comparative 2019 quarter. Again, these loans can be fully forgiven if your company meets the Treasury's basic underwriting guidelines.

The CBA recently held its Candidate Forum (debate) for those seeking a seat on the Select Board. The debate was held on March 18th at the CHS PAC. Unfortunately, we could not open the venue to the public due to social distancing protocols. Despite the audience restriction, the event was a tremendous success due to the hard work of the event committee (Jim Cullen, Jeff Hardy, Doug Hausler and Amanda L'Hussier) and Chelmsford Tele Media (CTM). Thank you all very much for your time and effort in making this a great event! I also want to thank the Select Board Candidates, Mark Carota, April Danielson, Latosha Dixon and George Dixon for their time and interest in making Chelmsford a better place to live and work for everyone.

The debate was broadcasted live and taped. It can be viewed on local TV or YouTube. Our Moderator, Amanda L'Hussier, did an outstanding job asking some difficult questions on matters facing our town. If you haven't had the opportunity to see the debate, I encourage you to watch it at your leisure. You will get a good sense of each candidate's position on some very important issues facing our town. You will also get to see the talent demonstrated by both CTM and Amanda L'Hussier. This was a Hollywood-level production!

Fast forwarding to the April 6th election results, George Dixon won a 5th term on the Select Board with 1,651 votes; Mark Carota won the other seat with 1,563 votes. You can find the official results of the April 6 local election on our town's website.

I am happy to report that we will be holding our annual golf outing once again this year.

Please keep your calendars open for the event to be held on Monday, September 13th at the Chelmsford C.C. All proceeds will benefit the high school scholarship fund. This is a great event to network, have some laughs and support our local golf course. The event will include a boxed lunch, awards dinner, door prizes and a 50/50 raffle. Please refer to the insert in this newsletter for more information and registration form.

Lastly, as I've said before, I encourage you all to become active in the association. We are always looking for fresh ideas and ways to improve and grow the association. We also want to know what concerns you might have with doing business in town. We are here to act as your voice on issues impacting the Chelmsford business community. Please feel free to reach out to me or any of the board members for information and assistance.

Sincerely,

Thomas N. Boucher

President

Chelmsford's Tercentennial Remembered

The C H E L M S F O R D Story

GROWTH OF POPULATION IN CHELMSFORD

By HOWARD D. SMITH

The original Chelmsford was a much larger tract of land than the present one, as it originally included all of Lowell this side of the Merrimack River, also the present town of Westford, a portion of Carlisle, in addition to its present size, so that this separation of large sections of the town and their incorporation into separate towns or city, has several times much reduced the population at those particular periods.

Chelmsford started with thirty-nine settlers from Concord and Woburn and within eighteen months this number had been increased by newcomers to such an extent that it was considered expedient to call a general meeting for the selecting of officers to manage the public affairs of the place.

No real census was taken until 1741 at which time the population was 853, and in the census of 1764 the population was 1012, and in 1776 it was 1341, but in 1790 it had dropped to 1144 due to separation of a part of Chelmsford to form the District of Carlisle. In 1800 the population was 1290 and in the next twenty years it only increased 160 in number.

In the thirty years from 1820 to 1850 there was a gain of 562 in the population, and the next fifty years showed an increase of 1887, or a total population in the year 1900 of 3984, and in the next twenty-five the population jumped to 6573, or a gain of 2589, and this was followed by another gain of 2901 in the following twenty-five years. The present population is 11,760 or approximately double what it was in 1920 right after the first World War.

Interesting and Fun Facts

- Henry VIII knighted all four of his "Grooms of Stool" — the people in charge of wiping his butt for him.
- Jeanette Rankin was elected to congress four years before women were even allowed to vote.
- Women couldn't apply for credit at a bank until 1974.
- Before the invention of modern false teeth, dentures were commonly made from the teeth of dead soldiers.
- In ancient Egypt, servants were smeared with honey so flies would flock to them, instead of the pharaoh.
- It was once considered sacrilegious to use a fork.
- Abe Lincoln was a champion wrestler. He was also a licensed bar tender. Maybe they should call him an "Abe of all trades."
- George Washington owned a whiskey distillery.

IT HAPPENED IN CHELMSFORD

The CHELMSFORD Story

In 1844 the town paid Benj. Obear $3.00 damages for spilling milk.

Jos. Bailey was paid $3.00 in 1844 for going to Jaffrey, N. H. to stay.

In 1873 the bounty paid on woodchucks and crows was $170.00.

In 1728-29 Simeon Spaulding built the house at the corner of Dalton and North Roads. Dr. Dalton, a great-grandson of Simeon was born in this house and Dalton Road was named for him.

A flag pole was raised on the south-east corner of the Common on Nov. 7, 1864 and was paid for by public subscription.

In 1866 there was a school for the deaf at the corner of Academy Street and the North Road, and its location is now commemorated by a stone marker.

A classical school was opened in 1825 at the Baptist parsonage.

In 1778 the legislature ordered a levy of shirts, shoes and stockings for the army, of which this town's proportion was 47 shirts and as many pairs of stockings and shoes.

In 1777 the town voted to accept 80 bushels of salt provided by the government for the town.

In 1776 a soldier returning from the army, called at Dr. Jonas Marshalls; who with his whole family took the small pox from him. Mrs. Marshall and two of their children died.

The Rev. John Fiske, the first minister in Chelmsford, came in 1654 or 1655. He was past the meridian of life at that time, and for several years there was no other minister nearer than Concord or Woburn. During the latter part of his ministry he was carried to church in a chair and preached sitting.

The second minister was the Rev. Thomas Clark, who served for about twenty-seven years. The inscription on his monument reads as follows;—

The remains of the Rev. Thomas Clark, the faithful Pastor of the flock of Christ in Chelmsford, are here committed to the dust. In the faith and hope of a blessed resurrection, he breathed his soul into the bosom of Jesus, Dec. 7, 1704, (and 27 of his ministry).

Chelmsford had two delegates in the first Provincial meeting at Concord in 1774, they were Jonathan W. Austin, Esq. and Samuel Perham, Jr.

In accordance with the plan of this provincial congress for the immediate defense of the province, Chelmsford voted to raise fifty-two men, including officers, who were to be "disciplined" half a day every week.

The following was an article in the town warrant in 1774.

"To see if the Town will empower some suitable persons to take such measures as they shall think proper to punish and discourage vice and profaneness, and call to an account idle, disorderly persons, who waste their time and substance in public houses at unlawful gaming, horse-racing and excessive drinking, frolicking and sabbath-breaking."

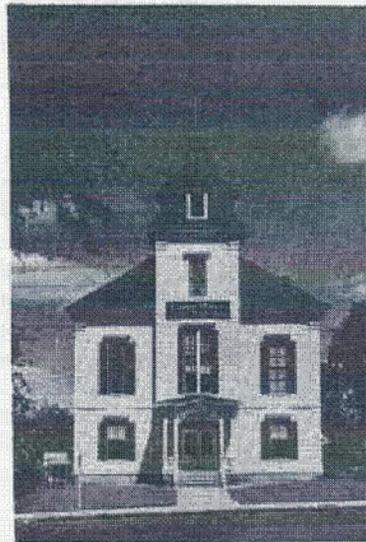

To carry out this article adopted by the town meeting, a committee consisting of the Selectmen and fifteen others were empowered, "to devise and execute such measures as they may think proper for promoting a reformation among persons of the above description."

Part of the report of this committee reads as follows;—

"that their company be shunned; and that people leave off dealing with them as far as is consistent with good reason and justice, not entertaining them in their houses by night or by day; but manifesting a dislike to their conduct, and bearing testimony against their vicious practices, look upon them as disturbers of the peace and good order of society; that the committee converse with such persons, and use their endeavors to reform them; and that those continuing in such practices, be put out by the committee to some honest and lawful employment; and finally that the town will aid, assist and support said committee in proceeding with such offenders accordingly."

The above, "report was unanimously accepted and the measures it prescribes, were found effectual to the desired reform," according to the historical record, and it points to the fact that some of the colonial troubles were not unlike some we still have.

The Selectmen at the time of the above were, David Spalding, Capt. Oliver Barron, Joseph Warren, John Minot, Zebulon Spalding.

CBA Select Board Candidate's Night 2021

March 18, 2021 at 7:30 p.m.

The Chelmsford Business Association hosted its annual "Candidates' Night" forum on Thursday, March 18th. The CBA Candidates' Night is a community service event that has been sponsored by the CBA for more than 20 years. This year the event was broadcasted live by Chelmsford Telemedia.

Candidate's Night has long been considered as the pivotal "kick-off" event of the local election season. This event offers an opportunity for those seeking public office to showcase their positions on a wide variety of topics. Its program is tailored to allow the audience to see how candidates distinguish themselves from their competition.

Candidates for Board of Selectman, Mark Carota, April Danielson, Latosha Dixon and George Dixon, spoke on a variety of topics including tax classification, town involvement, town management and current events. Each candidate presented their positions well and expressed great passion for our town. Amanda L'Hussier, from the CBA Board of Directors and L'Hussier Insurance Agency, debuted as Moderator and did a fantastic job.

The Candidates Night Committee felt the night was a success as well as an important and informative event for our membership. Jim Cullen, Jeff Hardy and Doug Hausler were on the committee that made this night possible. Tom Boucher and John Harrington also played big roles in making this event happen.

Questions were prepared by the committee in advanced, and the Candidates also had the opportunity to ask questions of each other. Congratulations to George Dixon and Mark Carota who were elected to the Board of Selectmen!

Hymn for the 300th Anniversary of the Incorporation of the Town of Chelmsford, Massachusetts 1655 - 1955

Through three hundred toilsome years,
Fraught with trials, joys and fears,
In His sure, protecting way,
God has brought us to this day;
And to Him we gladly raise
Fervent thanks and hearty praise!

Generations came and went,
Leaving fruit for labor spent;
And with gratitude we hold
All that History has told
Of their sacrifice, success,
Courage, faith and steadfastness.

Time and change have left their trace,-
Old to new has given place;
Far beyond the fathers' thought
Are the wonders years have wrought!
And our thriving town can see
Progress, growth and industry.

Trusting Him who rules above
For continued help and love,
In the future may we be
Blest with much prosperity,
While, whatever shall be done,
"Children guard what sires have won!"
